

MA graduates with specialization in Gender through Literature and Cultures in English in the two-year Bologna type English Studies MA (2011–)
&
MA graduates with Specialization in GLASS
/Gender in Language and Literature (2004–2010)

GENDER THROUGH LITERATURE AND CULTURES IN ENGLISH (2011–)

2018

- Csipe Szilvia: An Intraracial Conflict Between the Black Male and the Black Female in Toni Morrison's Paradise
- Szarvas Réka: Mad Housewives and Cool Girls: Gillian Flynn's Novels as Feminist Metafiction
- Szűcs Edit: Challenging the Boundaries of "Normal" in Steven Universe: Queering the Landscape of American Children's Cartoon

2016

- Ádám Nóra: The Beautiful, the Happy and the Starving. Everyday Stories of Female Anorexia Nervosa and Margaret Atwood's The Edible Woman

2015

- Gera Marianna: The Representation of Gender and Sexuality in Japanese Girl's Comics
- Jenei István: Online Identities and Gender
- Szőke Dávid: The Gendered Narrative Voice in Iris Murdoch's The Black Prince
- Fekete Anita: A gendered analysis of the Beat movement on the basis of Carolyn Cassady's life-narratives

2014

- Fritz Fruzsina: The Use of Parody in Muriel Spark's The Driver's Seat

2013

- Gorzás Zsófia: Skin as a Site of Gendered Self-Expression
- Juric Danijela: Feminism and Lady Gaga

2012

- Barcal Noémi: Beauty, don't Bet on the Beast! Women's subordination in three versions of an animal-groom fairy tale classic
- Filippinyi Noémi: Strategies of queer visibility in contemporary advertising
- Kokovay János Dezső: Monstrous Femininity in Contemporary Cinema
- Kunyi Suzana: Children's Gothic and the emotional politics of reading
- Nagypáti Noémi: Gendered Voices in the Opera

2011

- Eszik Gabriella: Pro-Choice Discourses of Abortion: The Limits of non-reflexivity
- Kulcsár Zsófia: Materialist Feminism and the Ethics of Uncertainty
- Mankovics Kitti: The Creation of an Imagined Life – Representations of Sylvia Plath
- Medve Tamara: Prostitution and Performance in Sarah Waters's Tipping the Velvet

GENDER IN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE (2004–2010)

2010

- Balog Hermina: Gender Relations through Joel-Peter Witkin's Photography
- Krucsó Gabriella: Women in media as a workplace and the production of gender stereotypes
- László Viktória Erzsébet: Queer Theory and Child Sexual Abuse
- Mádi Judit: Women's Access to Media as a Workplace in the US and Hungary
- Molnár András: (Im)possibility of representation of gayness in "Brokeback Mountain"

2009

- Balázs Katalin: Subversion in Visuality and Language: Sarah Kane's Blasted and Cleansed
- Horvath Melinda: A Liberal Feminist Interpretation of Jane Austen's Mansfield Park
- Menczel Diana Greta: The Double Bind of Contemporary Femininity in Women's Magazines
- Toth Magdolna: A New Kind of Feminist Self-expression in the 90s
- Tothova Andrea: (Im)possibility of Transgression for Becoming-Woman: Salman Rushdie's The Ground Beneath Her Feet

2008

- Madarassy Luca Réka: Manifestations of Écriture Feminine. Adrienne Rich's Political Poetry (1968-1978)

2007

- Ambruzs Péter: Masculinity Redefined: Advertising and the Eroticisation of the Male Body
- Bozsó Lilla: The Subordination of Female Sexuality in D.H. Lawrence's Lady Chatterley's Lover
- Fráter Izabella: The Similarities and Differences of the Religious Imagination of American and Latter-Day Saint Women Based on Six Points
- Kovács Adrienn: Women Caught in the Trap of Imagery
- Misits Éva: The Language Use of a Small English-language Role-playing Chat Community
- Simon Zsuzsa: The Phenomenon of Metrosexuality. Feminist Media Criticism

2006

- Szénássy Edit: Contemporary Feminist, Medical and Anthropological Perspectives on the African Female Circumcision Debate

2005

- Bagdi Gabriella: The Representation of the Cult of True Womanhood in Harriet Jacobs' Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl
- Koller Nóra: The Construction of Masculinity in The Matrix

2004

- Antoni Rita: The Gothic as a Mode of Representing Anxiety about Sex and Gender in 'The Ballad of the Sad Café' by Carson McCullers
- Vecsei Gabriella: The 'Proper Lady' and Moral Education in Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility